Niort, Guardian of Marais Poitevin

Niort, a medieval citadel where the Marais Poitevin takes life in the meanderings of the river Sèvre, will seduce you with its riches and eclectic architecture. During your visit, you'll be able to see Richard the Lionheart's dungeon (XIIth century) one of the most beautiful sets of twin Roman dungeons in France, just after that of Vincennes, the medieval houses of Saint André's hill, the Baltard-style covered market...
